Tell why you are here.

THE ARXALMA SONG

Foursquare her towers rise,
Arxalma fair!
Wide-spread her beauty lies,
Arxalma rare!
Sheltered beneath her walls
She keeps her own
Children of liberty;
We call her home.
Ever her care shall be
To keep us true,
Upright, aspiring,
With fervor due,
Crowning our visions all
Skyward doth gleam
Our shining citadel,
Strong and serene.
All down the years to come,
Reverent we'll be!
Turning our hearts and steps
Homeward to thee;
And though our westward ways
May lead us far,
We'll keep Arxalma pure,
Our guiding star.

Community Representation Broadens on Board of Education

Mr. Frank O. Scott
President

Mrs. Luke F. Chelius
Vice President

Mr. Harry L. Cramp
Secretary-Superintendent of Buildings

Mr. Richard H. Kauffman
Treasurer

Mr. Frank O. Scott begins new role as president of the school board.

In the history of the Board of Education of the Reading School District, countless decisions have been made continuously by the civic-minded group for the expansion and improvement of the school district's educational facilities, and for the enrichment of the school curricula for the benefit of the students in the Reading Public Schools, but one of the most significant actions of the Board of Education in recent years was its sincere interest in bringing about a broader and deeper community representation within the Board of Education itself. This initially was brought about with the nomination of Mr. Frank O. Scott by the Board of Education to fill the unexpired term of office of Dr. Emil J. Bartos who resigned, and whose term of office expired in 1971. As a result of his official acceptance of the Board of Education's nomination on August 23, 1971, Mr. Frank O. Scott had the unique distinction of being the first black person to become a member of the Board of Education.

After completing the unexpired office of his predecessor, the citizens of the City of Reading gave Mr. Frank O. Scott their combined support by duly electing him to a regular term of office as a member of the Board of Education. During this time, he had the additional honors of being elected by the Board itself as its vice president, and later as its president.

Greater depth in community representation took place with the election of Mr. Harold R. Jackson.

In his acceptance speech as the new president of the Board of Education of the Reading School District, Mr. Frank O. Scott gave the following message to the school board, visitors, and the members of the local press at the school board meeting:

Being the president of an urban school board is an awesome and time-consuming responsibility. Being the first black president is an honor which makes the responsibility even more acute.

I am fully aware of the almost unlimited dedication of my predecessor, Mrs. Mary Ann Chelius. In fulfilling her obligations as president of the board, at the price of personal and political disadvantage, she has served faithfully the children of this city.

During my term as a board member, I have tried to represent the interests and the views of the average citizen of Reading, always bearing in mind that all of us, board members, administrators, and teachers, exist as an organization for one purpose only — to serve the boys and girls in our schools.

I plan to continue this basic interest as president of the board.

To succeed in the task of maintaining and improving the quality of education for our children, I need the help of all residents of Reading, I am fortunate to have a board which has demonstrated its capabilities and a superintendent whose educational foresight already has been shown clearly.

This pledge I renew — that I shall serve faithfully the taxpayers of this community with all my abilities.

Mr. Frank O. Scott,
President of the Board of Education

Yearbook Staff Dedicates 1975 Arxalma

Miss Marion J. Moyer

Very rarely is the Arxalma yearbook dedicated to any person, but we, as staff members of our publication, feel Miss Marion J. Moyer deserves great recognition for her forty-nine years of service in the field of education.

In the school year of 1926-1927, she served as clerk at what was known as the Girls' High School. In the following year at the newly opened Reading Senior High School, she held the position of telephone clerk; and for the next three years, 1928-1931, she fulfilled the duties of attendance clerk. Beginning in 1931 to the present year, Miss Moyer has been secretary to the principal, and she has faithfully served in this capacity for six different Reading High School principals, namely Mr. John P. Lozo, 1929-1936; Mr. John H. Eisenhauer, 1936-1944; Mr. Earl A. Master, 1944-1955; Mr. LeVan P. Smith, 1955-1960; Mr. Roland P. Kyle, 1960-1974; and Dr. Richard P. Flannery, who began his Reading High School administrative career in the summer of 1974.

During the years Miss Moyer has spent at the Castle on the Hill, she has worked with countless administrators, teachers, parents, and over 32,000 students. Her tasks involved a great variety of official school correspondence, numerous matters concerning the senior class, including graduation, and reports of all types for the administration and faculty of the high school. After almost one half century of service to our school, it is understandable that the wealth of knowledge Miss Moyer has gained, and her willingness to share this knowledge, has made her one of the most respected women in the community of Reading.

On behalf of the administration, faculty, and students of Reading High School, we, the staff members of the 1975 Arxalma, consider it an honor to dedicate our yearbook to Miss Marion J. Moyer, a woman devoted to fulfilling her tasks no matter how great the challenge. Furthermore, we personally would like to express our sincere appreciation to her for the many services she has provided to help make our 1975 yearbook publication a successful one.

It is the combined wish of everyone that after her retirement, Miss Marion J. Moyer will continue to have good health and a pleasant future with many happy memories of Reading High School.

Former Assistant Administrator Elected to Position of Superintendent

Dr. Jack D. Neal
Superintendent of the Reading Public Schools

Dr. Jack D. Neal was elected to the position of Superintendent of the Reading Public Schools on February 27, 1974. Officially, he began his new administrative role on July 1, 1974. He succeeded Dr. Ralph C. Geigle who served as the city's superintendent of public schools from 1956 to 1974, a period of 18 years.

Our new superintendent earned his Bachelor of Science degree at Wittenberg University, his Master of Arts degree at Case-Western University, and his Doctor of Philosophy degree at the University of Pittsburgh.

He began his career as a teacher and coach in 1959 in a secondary school in Lucas, Ohio. From 1960 to 1964, he served as a teacher in the Lakewood Elementary School.

On the administrative level, he was principal in the McKinley Elementary School in Lakewood, Ohio, from 1964 to 1966, and for the next three years, he held a similar position at the Hayes Elementary School in the same city, from 1968 to 1971.

In addition, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1966 and 1967, and later he was a research associate at the same university during the 1967-1968 school year. In the 1971-1972 school term, he was a staff member of the Tri-State Area Study Council. From 1973 to 1974, he was an assistant superintendent in charge of curriculum and instruction for the Reading School District. On February 27, 1974, the Board of Education selected Dr. Jack D. Neal as the new Superintendent of Public Schools for the Reading School District.

Dr. Neal was also busily engaged in the field of publications. He wrote many articles for professional magazines. In addition, he served as the editor of the Public School Digest, and also in the same administrative capacity for the Tri-State Area School Study Council "Newsletter".

His professional affiliations included membership in the Reading Association of School Administrators, the Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators, the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the American Association of School Administrators, and the Phi Delta Kappa, an international educational organization.

Highlighting his local community activities was his active participation in the Reading Rotary Club, and his continuous service in the planning division of the Berks County United Way. On the county level, he served on the Advisory Board of the Kutztown State College.

New Principal's Leadership and Background Enrich the Castle Image

On May 28, 1974, Dr. Richard P. Flannery was elected as the new principal of Reading Senior High School, thus becoming the eighth person to hold this position as top administrator at the Castle on the Hill. He succeeded Mr. Roland P. Kyle who was principal from 1960 to 1974.

Since his appointment, the Reading native has exhibited leadership, perseverance, and foresight while introducing new and sound educational concepts. Dr. Flannery's dynamic influence has allowed the school to maintain the best of the traditional past while exhibiting the necessary flexibility to meet the challenging needs of today's youth. His initiative and guiding hand has served as a continuous stimulus to urge Castle students to achieve higher educational and personal goals, and his open friendliness and sincerity has enamored him to hundreds of students.

Dr. Flannery's educational background includes undergraduate work at Oklahoma State University and Kutztown State College. He completed graduate work at Temple University and the University of South Carolina. This year he completed a three year doctoral program at Florida's Open (Nova) University. Dr. Flannery has earned both principal's and superintendent's certification in Pennsylvania.

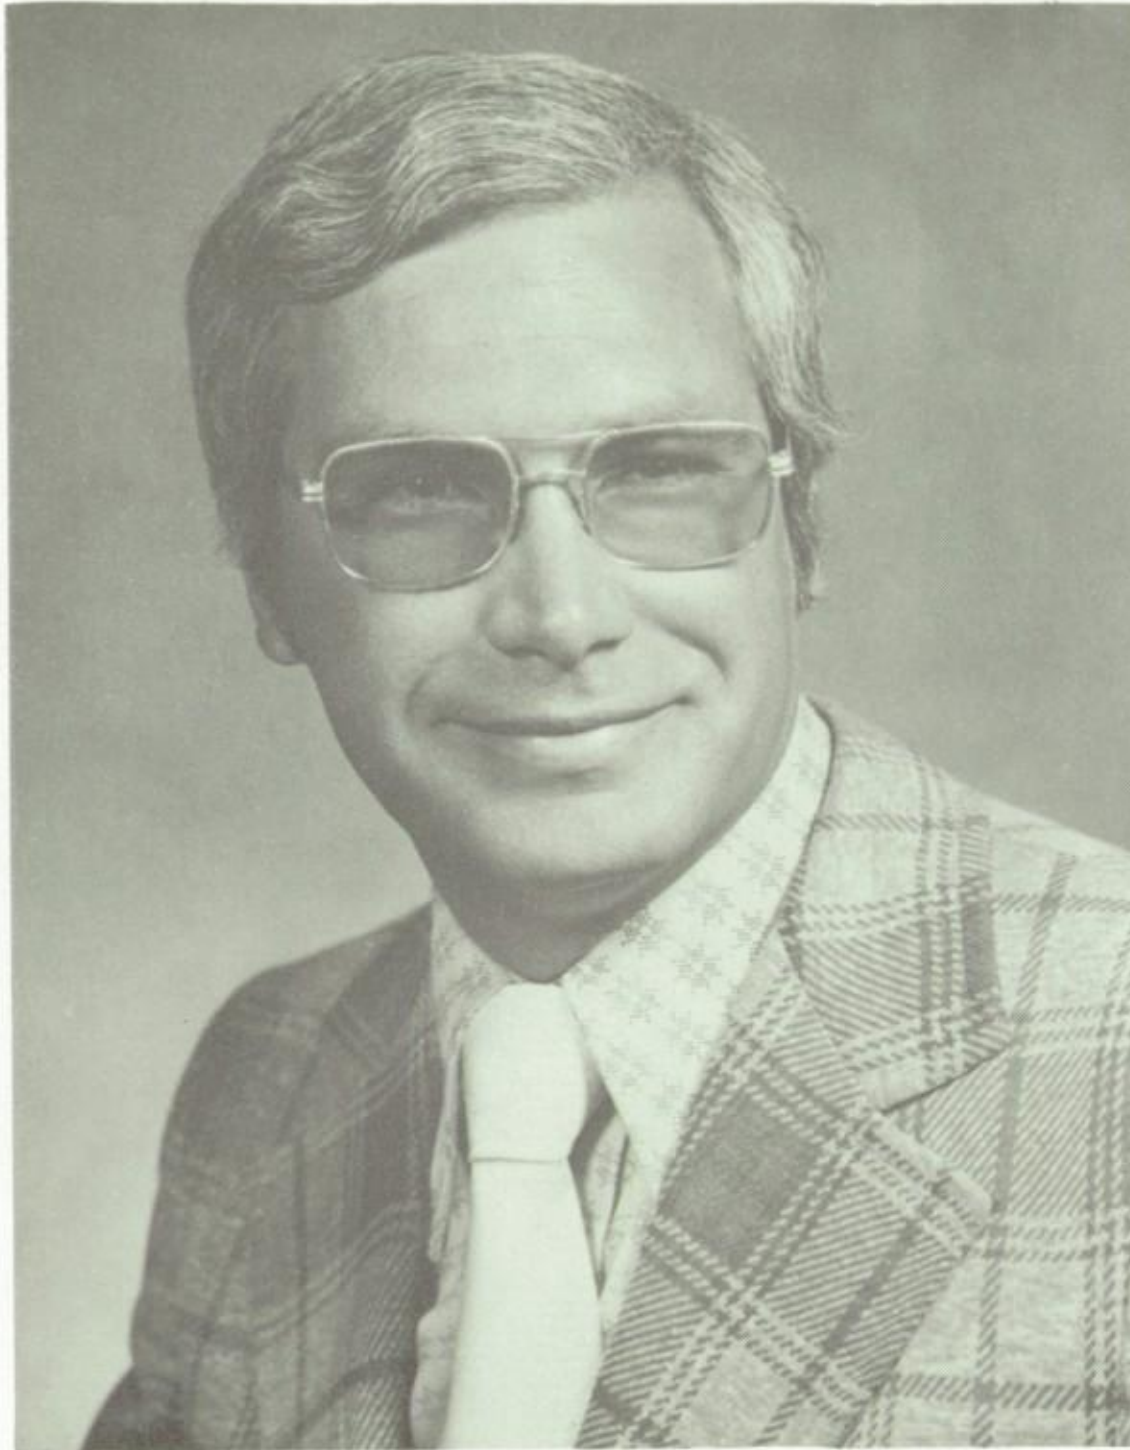

Our new principal began his teaching career at Boyertown

High School after a four year tour of duty in the U.S. Navy. He later served in various administrative roles at Boyertown including one year as acting principal. In 1971, he was awarded the "Teacher of the Year" award by the Valley Forge Freedom's Foundation. A free-lance writer, Dr. Flannery won the first place Keystone Press Award for the top sports story in the state (Martin Luther King-International Freedom Games) as awarded by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Dr. Flannery is renowned in the field of athletics both as a participant, and as a director and coach. A Berks County and state mile champion in high school, he later became a Missouri Valley Conference champion for Oklahoma State. In amateur basketball, he won fourteen league scoring titles in twenty-five years of action. He once scored ninety-two points in one game which still stands as the top Class A amateur league mark in Berks County. To prove his versatility, he is also a Master in Korean Karate.

Furthermore, Dr. Flannery served as director of the famous Venzke Relays track carnival for over a decade, and his combined coaching record for the sports of track and cross country over an eleven year span was 164 wins and 33 losses, including six Ches-Mont titles for Boyertown High.

Computer Scheduling New Task for New Vice Principal

Mr. Ronald J. Lubas

Selected as a new vice principal at Reading High School on July 24, 1974 was Mr. Ronald J. Lubas. He filled the vacancy created by Mr. William C. Horine, who retired at the end of the 1973-1974 school year.

His early education was acquired in the Reading Public Schools up to and including the year of his graduation which was in 1961. After this training, he went to Bloomsburg State College where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education. After acquiring this degree in 1965, he completed advanced work in the same field at the same school for his Master of Arts Degree.

His experience includes nine years of teaching in the business education department at the Reading Senior High School from 1965-1974, and in the Reading Standard Evening High School from 1967-1974.

Responsibilities of the new principal were similar to those of his predecessor. This year, however, Mr. Ronald Lubas had the additional tasks of preparing basic student and faculty schedule data for computer use. In this gigantic new project, he worked closely with Mr. James Adams, the school district's computer research analyst, who took care of the mechanical aspects of the school's computer processing.

Countless secretarial, clerical, and miscellaneous services provided by the Reading High School office staff helped to expedite and assure the success of all matters pertaining to the administrative, faculty and student programs.

In addition to their respective office assignments, members of the general office staff were often busily engaged in such work as general correspondence, communications, typing, mimeographing, filing, recording, transcribing and daily pupil accounting.

Secretarial work related to administrative matters were capably handled by Miss Marion J. Moyer, the principal's secretary.

Plan Eventful Year

Following the tradition established by the Class of 1974, the Senior Executive Committee of 1975 served as the basic student advisory group for determining matters pertaining to the general senior activity program.

To ease the work of this general administrative body, six special units within the committee itself were formed. These groups took care of such matters as ticket sales, class motto, class publicity, prom and commencement details, and reunion plans.

Combined efforts and services of the Class Sponsors, Class Officers and members of the Executive Committee contributed much to making the students' senior year a most enjoyable and successful one.

School Newspaper Adds New Feature

Sponsor—Mr. Joseph G. Plank

What's black and white and read all over? Of course, the Red and Black, Reading High's popular newspaper.

"New" was the key word in the paper's policy this past year. In an effort to make the newspaper more dynamic, six regular four-page issues of the paper were published during the year, with the new feature being a one-page up-to-date supplementary edition between the regular publications.

Staff heads prepare a page make-up for a forthcoming issue of the paper.

During the school term, the feature staff provided the readers with pages of interesting and exciting articles.

Patricia Pastore, Richard Way, Jan Dobbins; ABSENT — Debra Dinino, feature editor

Throughout the year, Peter LeVan, the news editor, informed members of his staff about their respective assignments for the week.

Kathy Rader, Kathleen Sallade, Joanne Holahan, Peter LeVan, news editor; ABSENT—Debra Dinino

School Newspaper Adds New Feature

Highlighting the material in the regular issues were informative articles of reader interest, sparkling sports reviews, news, and fun-filled feature sections. Timely news items, monthly horoscopes, cryptograms, and other unique features were presented in the newsletter.

As in previous years, Mr. Joseph G. Plank, the advisor, and three members of the staff took an active part in the activities of the 43rd State Convention of the Pennsylvania School Press Association which was held in the Penn Harris Motor Inn on Friday, November 15, 1974 and Saturday, November 16, 1974.

Interesting sports articles and forceful pictures provided enjoyable reading for Castle students.

Debra Dinino, Alethea Carpousis, sports editor; John Shriver

Co-editors of the Red and Black supplement eagerly prepare the first edition of the "Newsletter."

Kathleen Sallade, co-editor; Kathy Rader, co-editor

At the state convention of the Pennsylvania School Press Association, Debra Dinino, feature editor, gained an exclusive interview with Dan Rather, one of the outstanding newscasters of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Mrs. Bonnie Magargal, first grade instructor at Twelfth and Marion Elementary School, welcomes Ruth Cattermole, Reading High senior, to her first assignment in the Student Instructional Aide program.

Student Librarians Gain Valuable Background

Highlighting the special programs was a panel discussion presented by three former members of the club who entered the field of nursing.

Off-campus activities included field trips to the Deborah Heart Hospital in New Jersey and to the St. Christopher's Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on April 17, 1975, where club members got a comprehensive view of the nursing profession and related fields.

Student nurses representing two local hospitals informed club members of the various aspects of the nursing profession.

Future Teachers Preview Careers

Sponsor — Mrs. Georganna N. Coleman

If a teaching career interests you, the Future Teachers of America Club can offer you a preview of the profession.

Some of the club activities which helped members to gain a better understanding of the teaching profession were student observation of teachers, a field trip to Bloomsburg State College, and tutoring elementary and junior high school students.

As a special project, members of FTA promoted National Education Week, October 28-November 1, 1974, by using one of the display cases to exhibit college catalogues and other information.

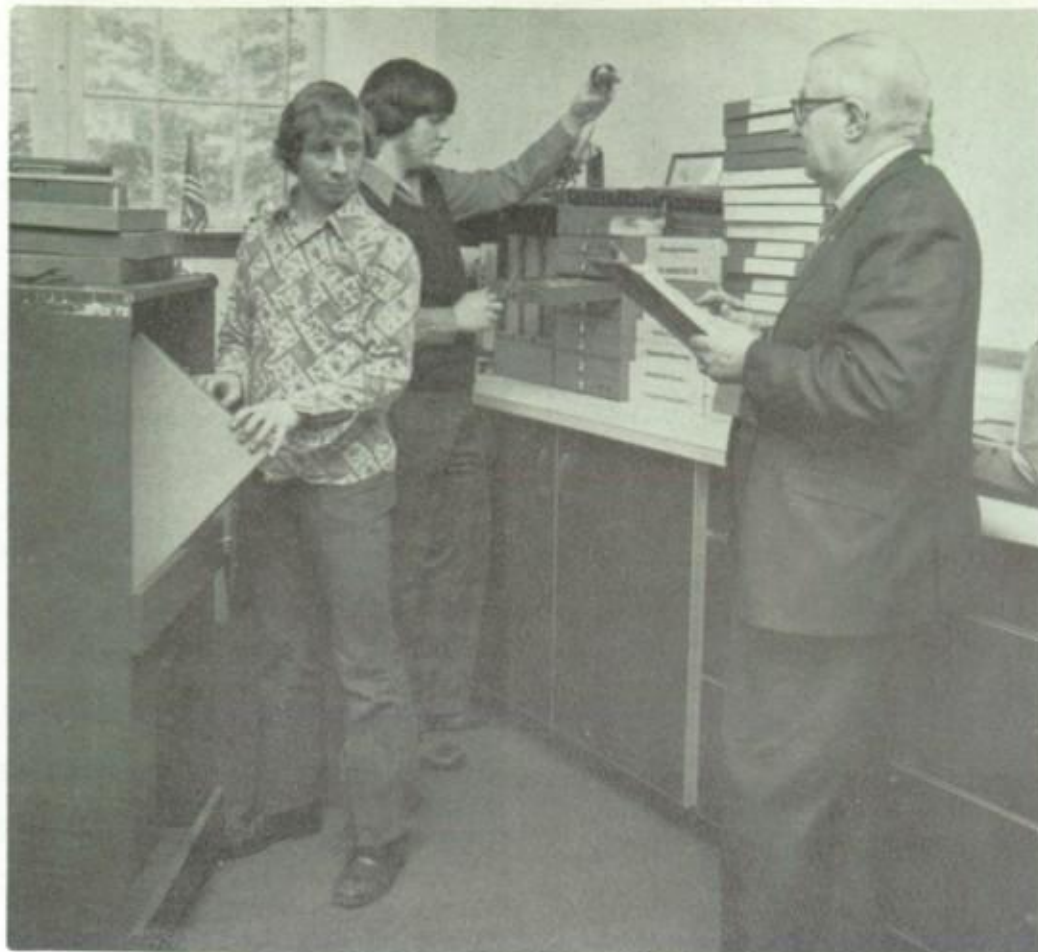

Officers of FTA chat briefly about the club's entry in Key Club's poster contest.

COUNTERCLOCKWISE — Debra Marburger, president; Sandra Stubblebine, vice president; Tammy Bechtel, secretary; Marvanne Noll, treasurer

Audio-Visual Center Provides Essential Services

Co-ordinator — Mr. Phillip W. Moore

Basically, the main function of this center was to distribute audio-visual equipment for use in the classrooms. This included films, film strips and movie projectors, tape recorders, record players, and other supplementary aids.

In addition, copy and other duplicating machines were available to faculty members, supervisors, and administrative personnel who wished to utilize this special service for specific use.

School Store Continues To Meet Student Demands

Manager — Mr. Jeffrey E. Gattone

On October 1971, the school store was first opened as a Key Club project. Because of its outstanding success and the corresponding increase in the work load of the store personnel, the store was operated as a special school unit starting in 1972.

Services of the store were expanded this year to include the operation of the candy vending machines in the student center.

For the most part, the store's success was due to the great variety of merchandise available to the Castle students.
 Mr. Jeffrey E. Gattone, manager; Catherine Meyers, Paul Stelmach, Mary-Jo McGuire

Throughout the year, Mr. Jeffrey E. Gattone, manager, made periodic checks to be sure that a plentiful inventory was always on hand.

School Telecasts

Project Knight Life

Sponsor - Mr. Thomas G. Fox

Lights . . . Camera . . . Action! Each Monday night at 8 P.M. on Cable Channel 5, the television audience was able to catch a glimpse of student happenings at the Castle by viewing Reading High School's popular television show — Knight Life.

In addition to interesting news and entertaining programs presented throughout the year, the staff provided on-the-spot coverage of such outstanding events as the senior prom and the high school commencement exercises. Furthermore, the show was often extended to present special programs such as the "Coach's Corner" featuring Reading High School's varsity football coach.

Telecasts originated from the school's modern and newly equipped studio adjacent to the school library.

Mr. Thomas G. Fox, the sponsor, and members of his staff capably handled the weekly television shows.

ROW 1 — Josephine DiMaria, Lee Ann Uliasz, Davida Fromm, Sandra Weidner, Susan Strauss, Michalena Lemanek, Mr. Thomas G. Fox, sponsor; ROW 2 — Terry Printz, Tracy Hoffman, Timothy Luigard, Frederick Reyes, Stephen Mull, Gerald Knorr, Luther Long, Peter LeVan, ABSENT — Karen Vogel, Shelley Sodomsky, Rhea Homan, Jeffrey Stolz, Peter Yarnell, Jeffrey Lillis.

Reading High School's unique program, Advanced Physical Education, provided training and experience for seniors interested in a physical education career.

Thirty-one students participated in the eight period per week course, learning the various skills of sports, demonstrating these skills to the students, and teaching classes for the regular gym instructors.

Besides their in-class activities, members of the group played in a volleyball match with the Reading High School faculty on January 22, 1975 at the 13th and Union Elementary School, and rendered assistance for Southern Junior High School's play-day on April 21, 1975.

GETTING INVOLVED

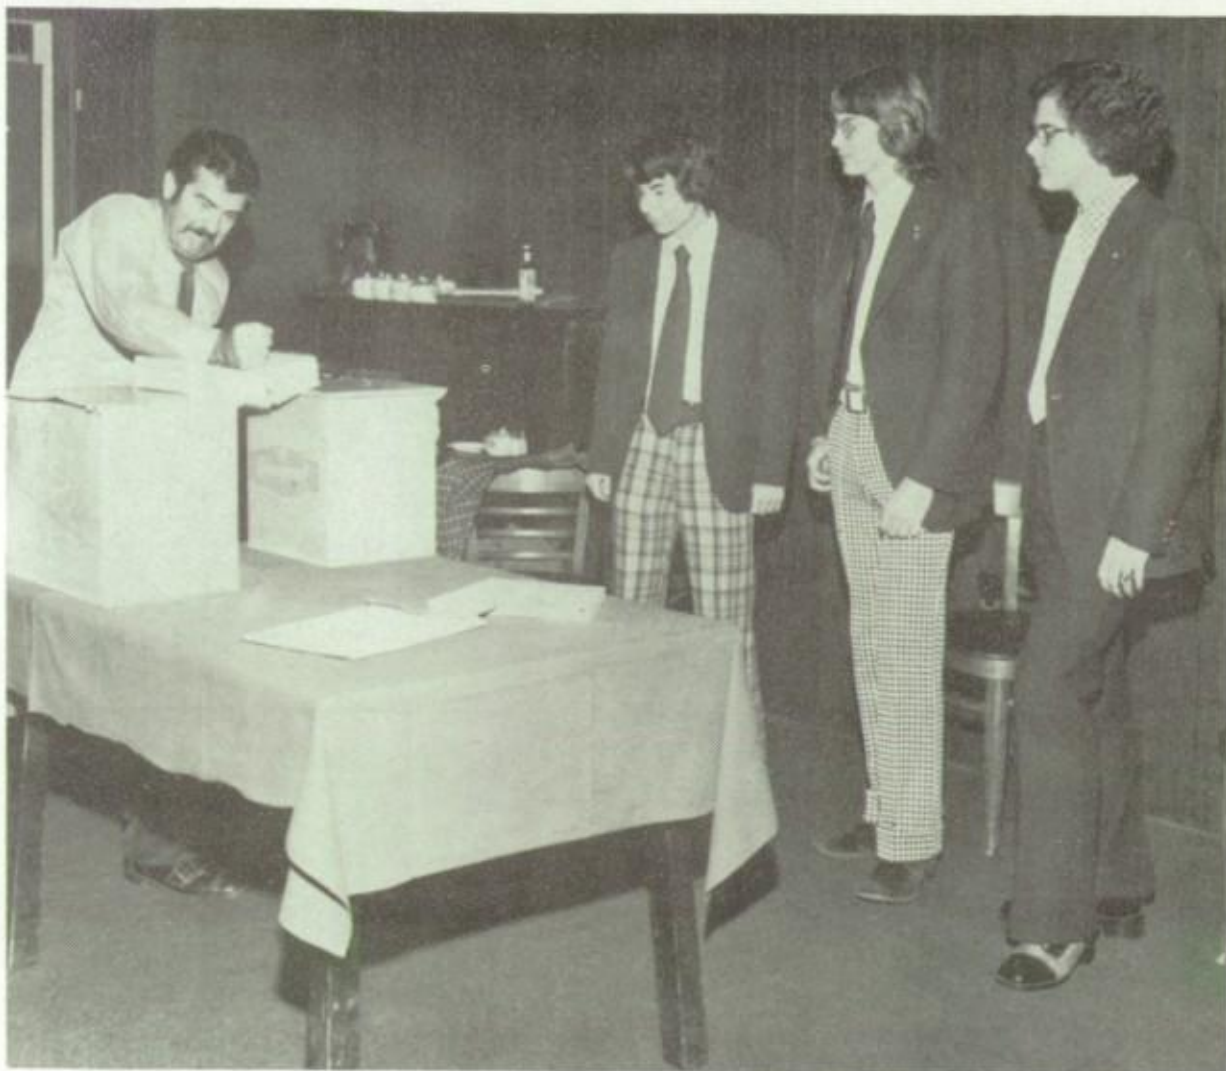

Club Reveals Key to Service

Sponsor — Mr. Ronald L. Spickler

Be involved! Be active! Serve your community! Key Club did all of this and more. Prior to political elections, members of the club made announcements on Reading radio stations urging people to register and vote. As another community project, the boys collected money for the American Cancer Society and Heart Fund.

During the Christmas season, club members, accompanied by Santa Claus traveled to St. Joseph's Hospital where they sang carols throughout the children's ward. St. Nick was played by Charles Szykiewicz. As another yuletide activity, the boys gathered canned food for the needy people of Reading.

Other events included the sponsorship of the annual homecoming queen contest and an Italian sandwich sale. (Mmm, were those sandwiches good!) In addition, on those cold nights at football games, club members were right there selling programs. As a spirit "sparker", they challenged any club to create a sign involving enthusiasm and school spirit. French club won the contest.

After a stimulating speech at one of the dinner meetings, Dr. Richard P. Flannery gave a fascinating karate demonstration to club members.

National Honor Society is recognizing significant achievements of Reading High School graduates by creating a Hall of Fame here at the Castle. Members of the group found all background information on outstanding Reading High School graduates to be considered for induction, and then helped to get in touch with those graduates chosen as the first ten members, or their families. A dinner held on May 1, 1975 at Riveredge, and sponsored by the Reading High School Alumni Association, honored the first members to be inducted into Reading High School's Hall of Fame. In future years, additional graduates will be added to this group of prominent alumni.

Aims of Baba-Na-Kaka were to foster better understanding between racial groups of the school, to provide an outlet for creative writing, and to give club members the opportunity to earn money for a scholarship to send a black or Hispanic student to college.

Activities were centered around Black History Week which took place from February 10-17, 1975. In observance of this special week, black students led discussions in history classes emphasizing the important role of black culture in the society of today. For another project, the group erected informative displays in the exhibit cases in the lobby.

Other club events included a cake sale in front of the school store and a skating party at Junior's Skate-Away.

Tasty baked good prepared by club members made the cake sale a great success.

New Projects Introduce New Horizons

Sponsor — Mr. Roger N. Mory

Ten delegates from each of the three grades constituted the basic student advisory group known as Student Council.

Basically, the organization's main aims were to serve as a special liaison unit between the school administration and the student body, and to assist all concerned in promoting and supporting school activities necessary for the welfare of the school.

Two new major projects were undertaken by the group this year, namely the preparation of a handbook somewhat similar to a college catalog, and preliminary planning for a student center where students could talk informally, play games, relax, and watch television.

Along with the new ventures, tradition was still honored when the council again selected a candidate to compete in the Multiple Sclerosis contest to raise money for MS victims. In May 1974, Cynthia Tobias earned the title of queen by collecting the most money for the drive.

During the year, council members reviewed timely topics of student and administrative interest.

Student Volunteers Contribute to the Success of School Assemblies

Assembly Chairmen

Sponsor — Miss Mary A. Capallo

Basically, the duties of the members of this group were two-fold. They served as assembly chairmen in the auditorium whereby they provided the continuity of each assembly program. As their other assignment, they used the principal's office to read the bulletin each morning over the public address system.

Student responsibilities in the auditorium were curtailed this year because of the large-scale fire which severely damaged the interior of the assembly hall on February 11, 1975.

At the beginning of the school year, Miss Mary A. Capallo, the sponsor, informed a number of chairmen of the procedures to be followed during the time they served as assembly chairmen.

Assembly Organists

Sponsor — Mr. William H. Clouser

For the most part, duties of the assembly organists were to play the processional and recessional music for the Castle's assemblies.

Because of the auditorium fire, these talented students could only render their services until February 11, 1975; after this date their interlude music for the evening lectures had to be played at the new lecture sites located at Northwest Junior High School and Northeast Junior High School.

Periodically, the student organists and their sponsor met to prepare a list of musical selections for forthcoming programs.

 Mr. Marshall J. Wagner

Emphasizing the spirit of goodwill and fellowship throughout the student body was the chief aim of the Hi-Y Club. In order to carry out this aim, the organization sponsored trips to the basketball playoff games for its members. Young men of the group also served as ushers for home basketball games. As the final social activity, the club held its annual spring picnic.

As in other years, the club awarded a plaque and a scholarship to an outstanding student of the senior class.

Club officers and the head meet to discuss plans for the scholarship to be presented to an outstanding 1975 graduate.

Lobby Showcases Feature New Look

Chairman — Mr. Edwin R. Madenford

Basically, the chief responsibility of this student-faculty committee was to schedule routine and special displays for the exhibit cases in the lobby.

Throughout the year, the showcases were utilized by clubs, organizations, and other groups as a means of informing students of various school activities. Displays were erected for such projects as the activity ticket drive, the selection of the homecoming queen, Black History Week, the school show, and other outstanding Castle events.

In addition, interesting exhibits were scheduled for the holiday seasons and special occasions.

To make the lobby showcases more attractive new corking and new magnetic panel glass panes were installed this past year.

After completing the basic schedule of exhibits, committee members discuss new displays to be considered for the remainder of the year.

Field Trips Add Interest To Club Program

Sponsor — Miss Stephanie Y. Henry

Students who wanted to gain a greater background in the exciting scientific field on an extra-curricular basis were able to acquire this additional information through membership and participation in the Science Club activities.

For the most part, students enriched their scientific knowledge through class discussions and field trips to the New York Museum of Natural History and the Reading Museum and Planetarium.

During one of their meetings, members prepared final plans for their forthcoming cake sale.

Student-Faculty Groups Render Special Services

Cooperative efforts of faculty members and students were utilized in three special service committees.

One group arranged the schedule of regular, special, and holiday assembly programs to be presented in the high school auditorium.

Eligibility standards for student awards in non-athletic activities were determined by another committee.

Recommendations for new health and safety measures continued the chief duties of a third committee.

What excitement there was in Room 212 this year! After a lapse of three years, enthusiastic French students got together and reactivated Reading High's French Club.

Educational activities included sponsoring contestants for the National French Contest, and a bus trip to Philadelphia to view a French play, "The Little Prince." In addition, they had the pleasure of seeing a film on the Louvre Museum.

Enjoyable social events were singing Christmas carols on Knight Life, Reading High School's television show, and also spreading Yuletide cheer at St. Joseph's Hospital. Climaxing the eventful year, was a formal dinner at the school and a bowling party at Hiester Lanes.

Debaters Achieve "Golden Year"

Sponsor — Mr. James A. Achenbach

Outstanding achievements of the Debating Club made this year a golden one. Initially, the Reading High School delegation clinched the championship of the Berks County Debating League for the ninth consecutive year. Adding to this success were the records established this past year which include the greatest number of awards won in one year, the greatest number of awards won at one tournament, and the best sweepstakes record at one tournament. In addition, the club registered its highest win percentages during the school year.

According to Mr. James A. Achenbach, club sponsor, the four-man varsity squad consisting of David Kauffman, Jeffrey Stolz, Jeffrey Karpen, and Karen Marlow has been among the most organized, and its collection of trophies has been the most outstanding in the club's ten year history.

Junior varsity debaters also participated in tournaments to gain experience for varsity competition next September. This team consisted of Dawn Felber, Sandra Musser, Elizabeth Richardson, Stephen Richardson and Emmett Lien.

Reading Competes in New Chess League

Sponsor — Mr. Curtis I. Schappell

Reading High School's Chess Club began the year with a new sponsor, Mr. Curtis I. Schappell who succeeded Mr. Lee Maniaci, and membership in the new Berks County Chess League.

Five teams participated in the new league, namely Reading, Daniel Boone, Holy Name, Governor Mifflin, and Wyomissing. After their first four matches, Reading's record stood at 4-0, having defeated all league schools in the first half of the season. Judging by their first-half victories, all indications seem to show that they will continue their winning ways in the second half of league action.

On January 11-12, 1975, the boys competed in the Liberty Bell Open at the Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia, with Jeffrey Karpen placing second and Jeffrey Stolz placing fourth in the tournament sponsored by the Philadelphia Chess Association.

Club Active in Service to School

Officers of the club worked hard to make this year's projects a great success.

Sponsor — Mrs. Roumal S. Chisholm

One of Reading High School's most active clubs this year was Serve Our School . . . and that's just what the members did!

To promote school spirit here at the Castle, members of the club posted spirit signs on lockers and throughout the halls. They sold basketball buttons, ushered at home basketball games, and a few of the girls also helped with a poster that SOS entered in Key Club's poster contest.

In order to raise money, the club held two cake sales at the school store, and with this money they were able to help needy families with children. Club members bought a turkey and brought in canned goods so a needy family could have a happy Thanksgiving. To brighten the Christmas season for four small children, SOS was involved in the Santa's helper program to buy toys for these children.

For the Thanksgiving season, club members arranged an appropriate display in the two showcases in the lobby.

What a name for an organization - Band-Aides! However, this is what they did - aided the band, in any way they could. This group of students, parents and friends were the main fund-raisers for the Reading High School Marching Band, and this year they carried out many new ideas.

On Monday, February 24, 1975, they sponsored the hilarious donkey basketball game where the senior high faculty challenged the junior high faculty in a great game of basketball - on the backs of donkeys! (Yes, real live donkeys!)

As another money maker, they sold Arby's roast beef sandwich tickets and collected the profit. On March 3, 1975, they held a card party and fashion show. Student models were members of the band. Fashions were by Junior Colony and Croll and Keck.

Spring activities were highlighted by the RHS block party.

High scorer for the comical donkey basketball game was Mr. Samuel T. Frankhouser, who poured in ten points for the RHS faculty.

Sportsminded Men Support Athletes

By joining and participating in the activities of Reading High School's Boosters' Club, men of the community are able to promote school spirit at the Castle on the Hill.

Aims of the Boosters' Club are to encourage athletes toward high school graduation, to reward them for their scholarship, leadership, and ability to assist coaching staffs of the junior and senior high schools. Above all, members of the club desire the high school's athletes to be aware that all potential and present athletes have the interest, admiration, and support of the Boosters' Organization.

Every year our library receives a contribution to use as needed. Financial support was given to the Marching Band for their trip to Virginia, and to students attending special academic clinics or sessions. This year the Alumni also contributed to our great basketball team that went so far in post-season play.

At the present time, $2,400 in scholarships is awarded to Reading High School students each year. Funds from this organization are also used to help finance a number of other worthy activities in the high school.

PERFORMING MUSICALLY

R.H.S. Choral Group Brightens Yuletide Season

Director — Mr. Charles W. Lutz

Basically, to be considered for the A Cappella Choir, students had to pass a vocal audition which was given in January 1974.

Sacred and secular music from all historical periods constituted the major part of this group's choral repertoire.

For the most part, they performed throughout the Reading community, with their busiest time being the Christmas season.

Express the Spirit of Song

Director - Mr. Charles W. Lutz

Enrollment in this choral elective was the largest in the last five years.

Final selection of membership was determined by auditions which were held during the month of January in the past school year.

Generally speaking, the vocalists specialized in singing a variety of three-part harmony music of a holiday, modern, or classical nature.

Foremost of the group performances was their presentation at the Trinity Lutheran Church at Sixth and Washington Streets in Reading on December 10, 1974.

Ohhh, when the Knights go marching in! Whenever the Reading High School Marching Band performed, they traveled straight to the top! They always put on spectacular presentations no matter where they went.

Band members were kept busy in the fall performing at halftime of football games and in the winter season at several different parades. They marched in Temple, Mohnton, Myerstown, and in our own Reading Christmas parade where they were enjoyed by everyone. Competing in the New Holland Parade, the front units and Charles Runkle, drum major, both captured top honors. Of all the schools in Berks County, only two — Reading High and Wilson — were given the honor of marching in Harrisburg at Governor Shapp's Inaugural Parade on January 21, 1975.

As their main spring event, they journeyed to Winchester, Virginia for the annual Firemen's Parade and Apple Blossom Parade. In these events the band has always placed well, but it did not compete last year because of its participation in the Canadian parade. In this international competition, the band earned first place laurels.

Newly-Formed Group Boosts School Spirit

Cheerleaders and Castle Spirit Club, make way! To assist these two groups in generating more fan enthusiasm during basketball season, the Spirit Band was created.

Due to rules of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, this group could perform only at home, non-league games; and, of course, at pep rallies.

Director — Mr. Hiram D. Hoch

Dependability and musicianship were the basic requirements for membership in Brass Choir.

Throughout the Christmas season, these talented musicians spread Yuletide spirit and joy by performing at various locations in the community. Not only did they play at Reading High, but also at the city's elementary schools, the Special Education Center, and the Administration Building.

On December 19, 1974, the Brass Choir, along with the A Cappella Choir, presented an enjoyable program of favorite holiday music on Penn Square.

Under the energetic direction of Lee Wilder, Reading High's Spirit Band served as a unique addition to the 1974-75 basketball season.

When the 1974 football season began, people were very optimistic about Reading High's chances for a winning season. Our Red Knights had not experienced more wins than losses since the campaign of 1969. By the time the locker room door was shut for the last time, all the Knights had was a shattered dream of memories of what could have been.

Despite a 2-9 record, there were some bright spots in the Red Knights' season. Victories came over Freedom in the season opener for the second consecutive year, and against Muhlenberg in a first-ever clash. Officials called the Freedom game with 1:20 left to play because of an extreme electrical storm.

In the annual "battle for the coal", Reading lost to Pottsville 27 to 0. In spite of this loss, the Red Knights still hold a 32-28-7 series lead in the state's oldest running rivalry.

For their outstanding achievements during the season, four Knight players received special recognition. Michael Schonewolf, co-captain, was selected for the All-Berks County Second Team Quarterback, All-Big 8 Quarterback, a Big 33 nomination, and Honorable Mention for All-State. Christopher Gaul, co-captain and linebacker, earned the honor of being named to the All-Berks County First Team, and Honorable Mention in the Big 8 League. He was also awarded the Touchdown Club's "Lineman of the Week" honor twice. Paul Cooper and Dennis Marburger were given Honorable Mention recognition in All-Berks County and for the All-Big 8.

Nine Reading High seniors played their last football game as Red Knights on November 28, 1974, at the Albright College Stadium. As a result of his resignation, this also marked the last game in which Mr. John Schonewolf served as the Red Knights' varsity coach. In his two years at the Castle, Schonewolf's squads have compiled a 3-17-1 record. His total fifteen-year career coaching mark to date is 60-50-5.

Eight opponents faced the Knights in their independent schedule. In comparison to last year's record of five wins, two losses, and no ties, this year's seasonal log was not exceptionally impressive.

In the first five contests, Reading was unable to score against the opposition including the newly added foe, St. Pious High School.

Reading's only victory came from action against Lancaster McCaskey High School, with a final score of 32 to 24.

In the remaining two games, the Knights suffered setbacks to Lancaster Catholic and Schuylkill Valley high schools, with scores of 30 to 0 and 28 to 12, respectively.

Booters Experience Successful Season

Varsity Coach — Mr. Curtis Reinik
Junior Varsity Coach — Mr. John Crossan

By achieving an 8-5-3 log, Reading High's soccer team posted the best record since the 1966-67 season when the overall results were 8-3-2. In the final league standings in the Western Division, Tulpehocken captured first place. Reading placed second, missing the division championship by only a few points.

Players scoring the most goals for the season were Jeffrey Lotz with 16, Fiorenzo Ferretti 8, and Todd Wawrousek 6. Lotz gained additional recognition for tallying the most goals in the Berks County Scholastic Soccer League. Leading in assists were the same three players, namely Ferretti with 9, Wawrousek 8, and Lotz 7. Charles Hix, goalie for Reading High School, kept the booters' opponents in check by making 168 saves for the season.

For outstanding individual playing, Jeffrey Lotz and Casey Gehret were named to the All-County team. In addition, the team received the coveted Sportsmanship Trophy. This marked the second time in three years that Reading earned possession of the traveling "sportsmanship" award.

Teammates praise Jeffrey Lotz (#1) after scoring his third goal in the 3-1 battle against Wilson.

Top Knight runners face the challenge of a new course in Hampden Park.

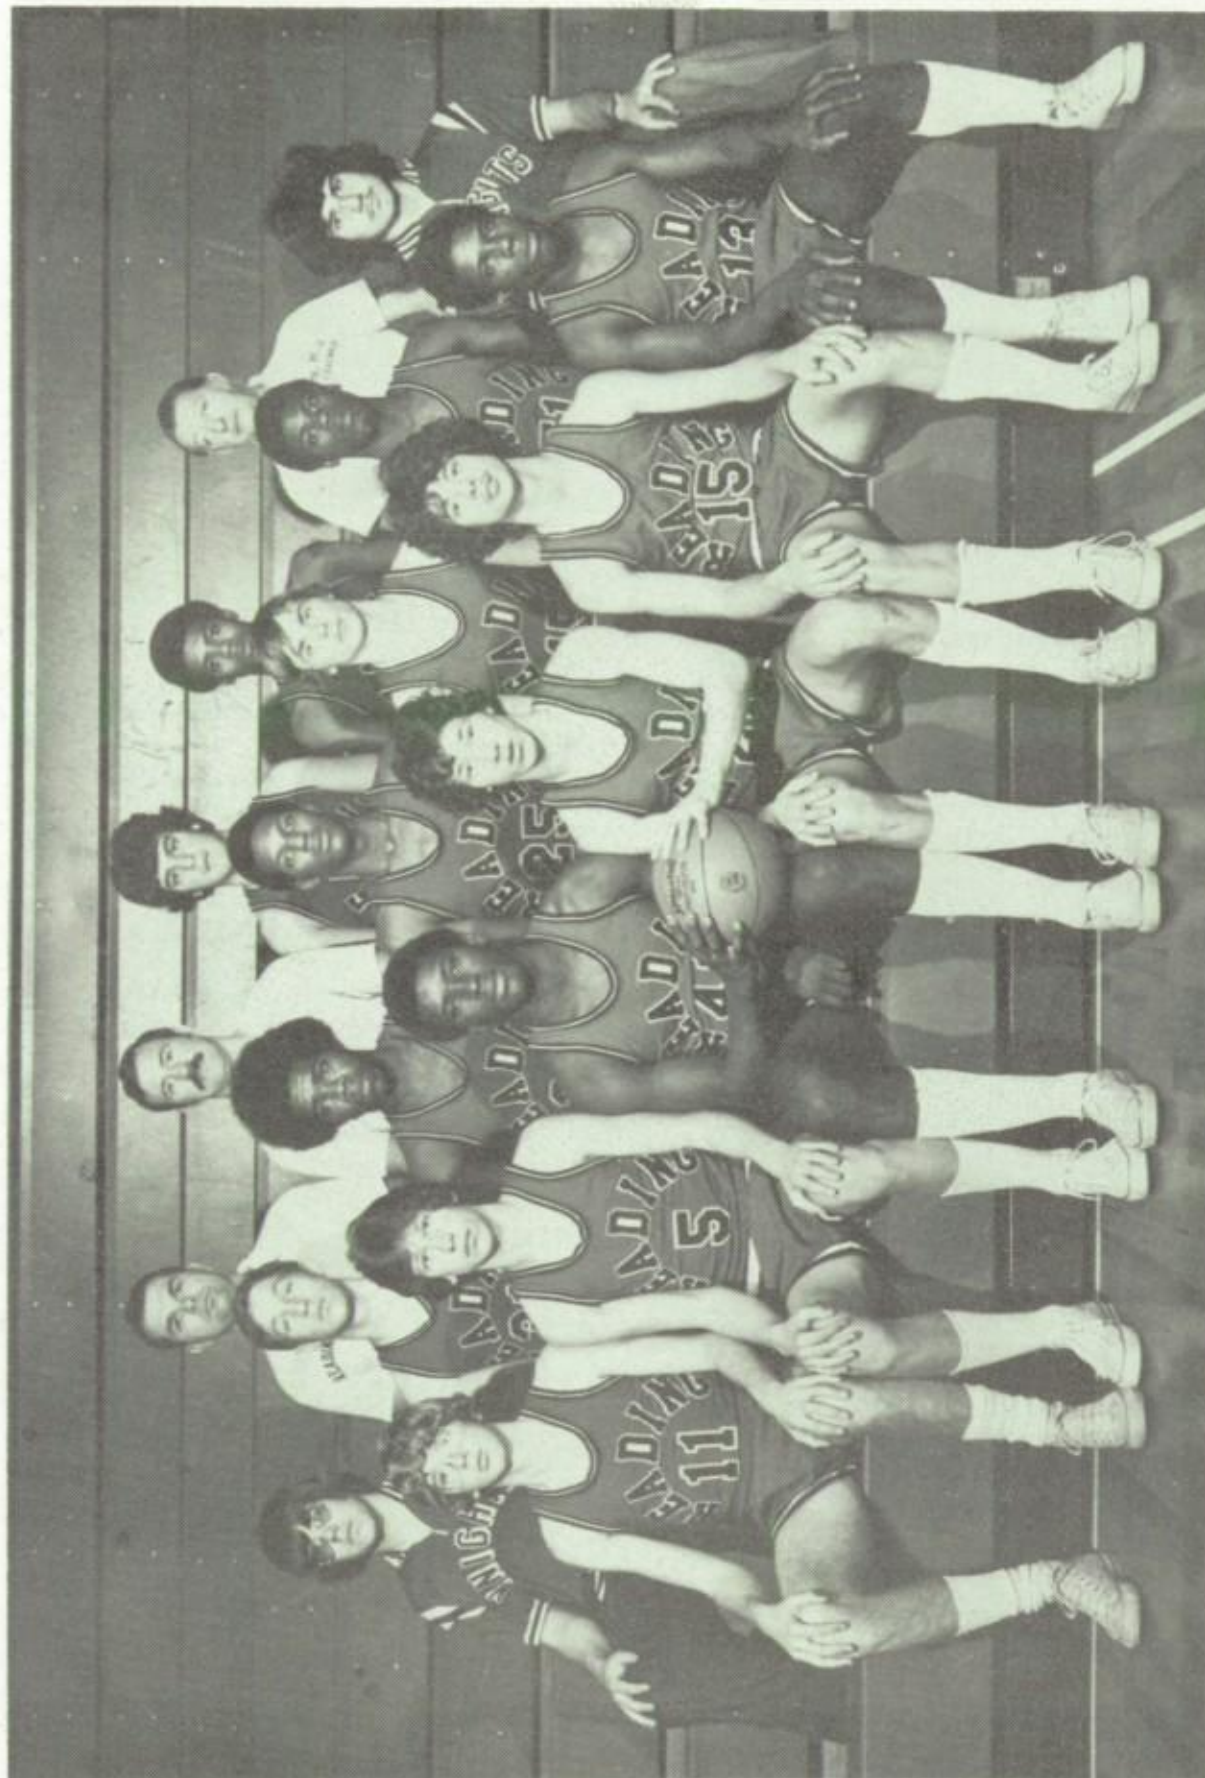

ROW 1 — Jesse Blankenbiller, David Weber, John Keith, Joseph Maiale, Kevin Moore

Coach — Mr. R. Michael Bell
Assistant Coach — Mr. Thomas Johnson

Super Season! Knight harriers out-hustled every team except two to clinch six wins in league play. Led by senior trotter John Keith's new record, Hamburg was hammered by Reading on its renovated course in Hampden Park 17-40. Lacking their second, third, and fourth runners due to illness, Reading's winning pace was short-lived when they were edged by Exeter 27-30. Our Red Knights bounced back into contention with a shaky victory over tough Conrad Weiser only to be dumped again by division leading Muhlenberg 27-32. With championship dreams vanishing, the Knights triumphed over their final three opponents only in vain as Muhlenberg captured the league crown.

Joe Maiale, Jesse Blankenbiller, and John Keith qualified for the District #3 run. Keith had an outstanding performance finishing ahead of all runners representing Berks County.

For his great defense, Anthony Bonanno was picked as the Most Valuable Player in Berks County by the local press.

J. Henry Merritt, a junior, threw in 376 points to be second high scorer.

"We're number two..." it may never catch on, but those few words just about sum up the 1974-75 R.H.S. basketball season. Reading's mighty Red Knights finished second in the Central Penn League, second in District Three, and second in the Eastern Pennsylvania playoffs.

Reading did win its own Christmas Holiday Tournament, a first-ever event. Three teams, Reading, Easton, and Plymouth-Whitemarsh, entered the classic unbeaten. When all the games had ended and all the fans had gone home, only one team was unbeaten. Hail to the Red Knights! Anthony Bonanno was picked as the tourney's Most Valuable Player.

Our Knights also extended the R.H.S. home court win streak to thirty-seven by beating such powers as Allen (District One Champ), Nanticoke (District Two Champ), Steelton (District Three Champ), Roman Catholic (Third best in Philadelphia), arch-rival Chester, and Easton (East Penn Champ) in the Reading gym. Since moving from Northwest in 1974, the Knights have won all twenty-two home games.

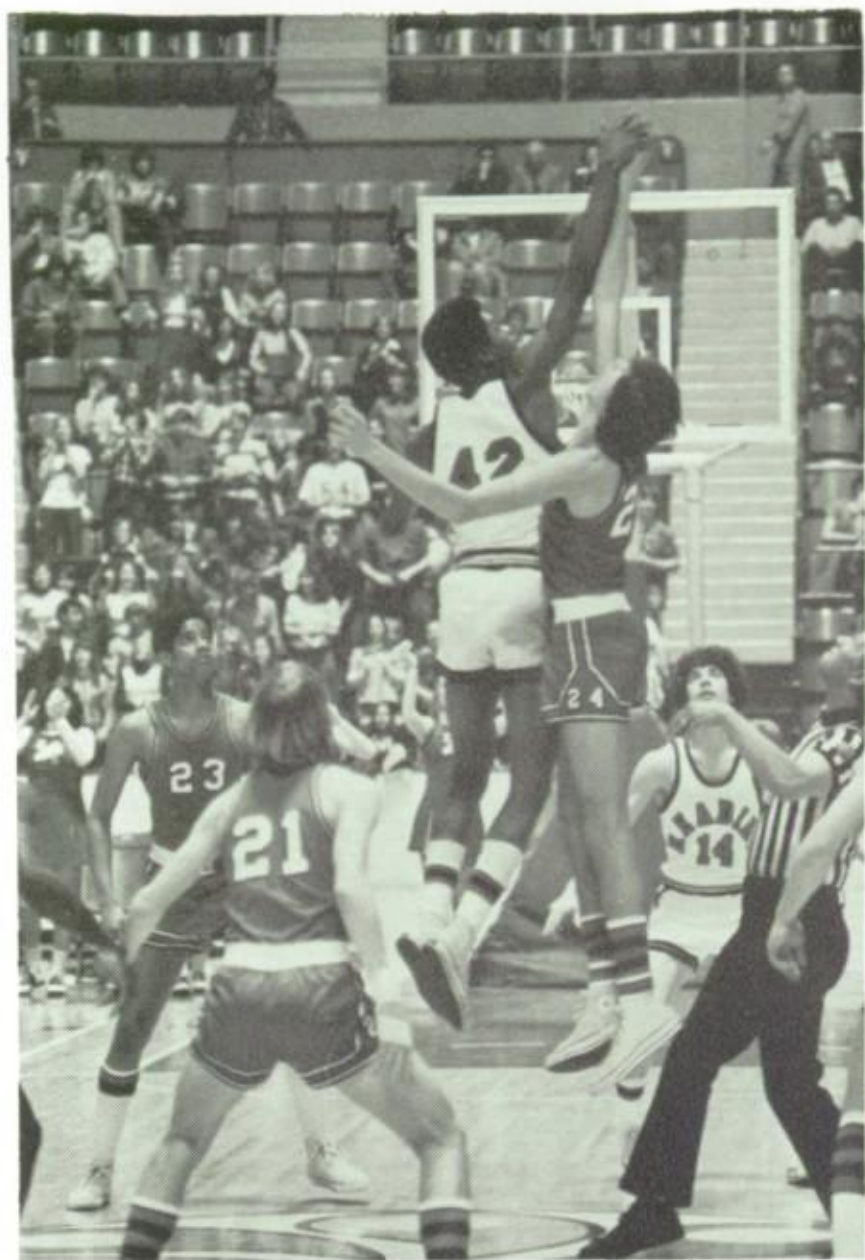

In late February, the Knights went on the play-off trail. Reading worked its way to the District III final, but lost to Steelton 64-60 in overtime. (Reading has now played the Steamrollers 129 times. R.H.S. has won 86, lost 43).

Leading scorer for the Knights was Peter Pasko with 415 points.

After evenly dividing their first fourteen games with opponents, the Red Knight Jayvees came alive to win six of their final seven basketball contests. Coach Mark Braun's basketballers outscored the opposition by only thirty points (1,137-1,107) through twenty-one games, but still ended the season with a 13-8 record.

Individually, Peter Mullenberg led Reading in scoring with 256 points. Steven Rossignoli contributed 229 points and Joseph Wawrzonek 127 to help make Coach Braun's first season a success.

He took over the jayvee coaching reins after Mr. R. Michael Eckenroth resigned at the end of last season. Mr. Braun had previously served as head scout and assistant varsity coach for three years for the Red Knights.

Prepare and attack — teammates watch and wait for the ball while Peter Mullenberg outjumps an opponent.

Senior Grapplers Dominate Strength on Varsity Team

Head Coach — Mr. R. Michael Bell

Assistant Coach — Mr. H. Peter Homrich

Cocaching the grapplers for the 1974-75 season were Mr. R. Michael Bell, assistant coach for three years and head coach for two, and Mr. H. Peter Homrich, assistant coach for his second year.

Having mostly inexperienced wrestlers and the support of only four veterans - James Price, Troy Robinson, Ronald Glass, and Marlon Moseley - the wrestling team finished its independent schedule with a record of 1-13.

On December 27 and 28, 1974, Reading participated in the Easton Tournament, capturing two fourth places; James Price in the 112 lb. division and Ronald Glass in the 132 lb. class.

Victories in the sectionals held at Franklin and Marshall College gave Marlon Moseley, Ronald Glass, and James Price a chance to compete in the districts. In the latter event at the Ralph C. Geigle Education Complex, Price came in second. However, none of the Reading wrestlers qualified for the regionals.

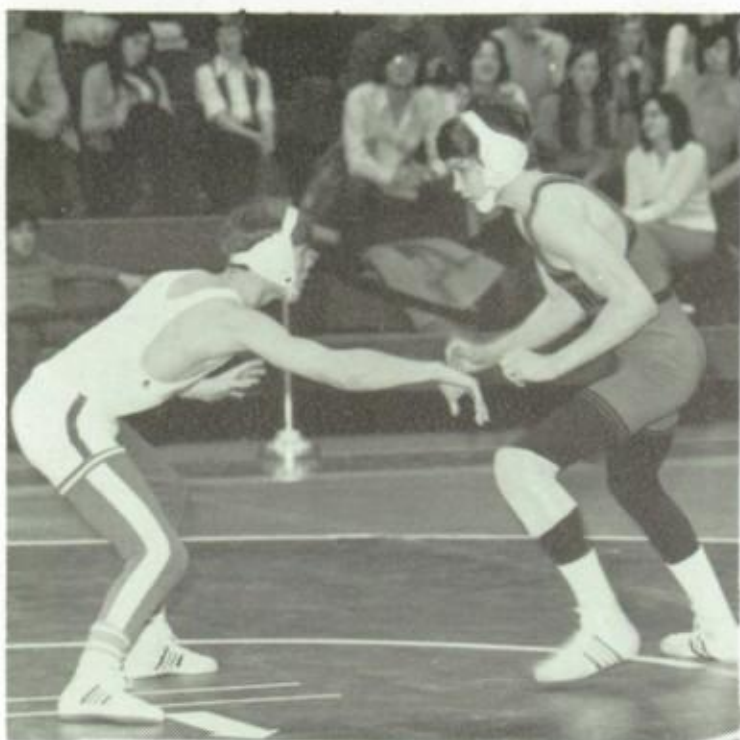

Because many high schools have only varsity squads, the Knights' junior varsity team wrestled mostly on an exhibition basis. Those individual wrestlers who showed potential for next year's team were Timothy O'Brien, Benjamin Kama, Brian Miller, and Alexandros Korvas.

With a takedown attempt in mind, Ronald Glass moves in for the attack.

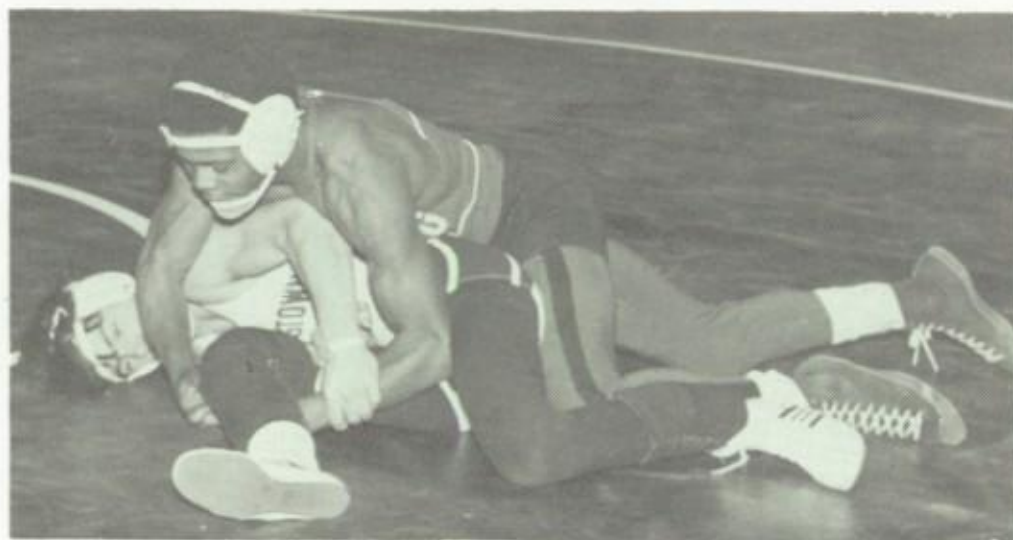

To maintain control, James Price uses a lift to be followed by a double leg takedown.

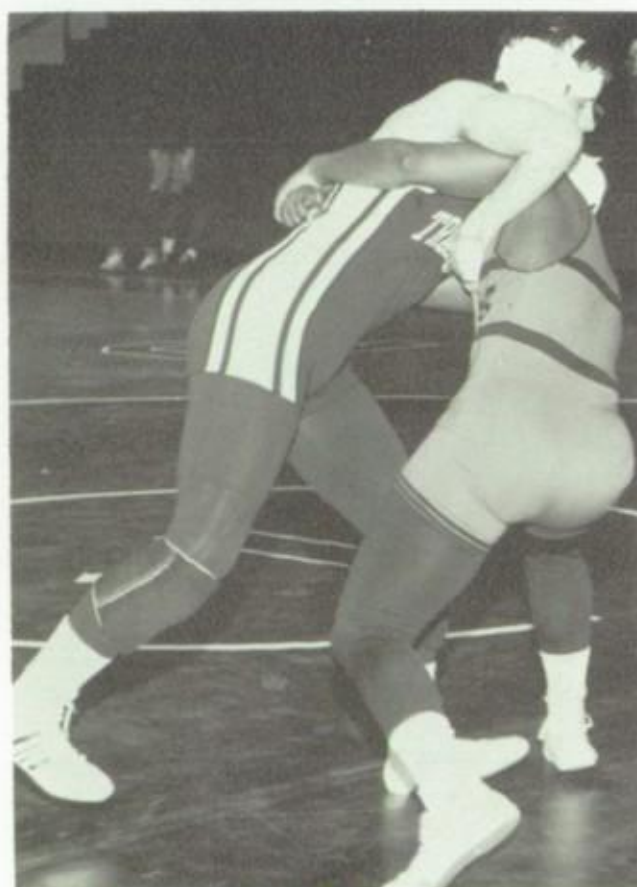

Skillful maneuvering by Kenneth Thomason enables him to execute a double-bar arm hold.

Troy Robinson wraps his opponent in a cross-body ride.

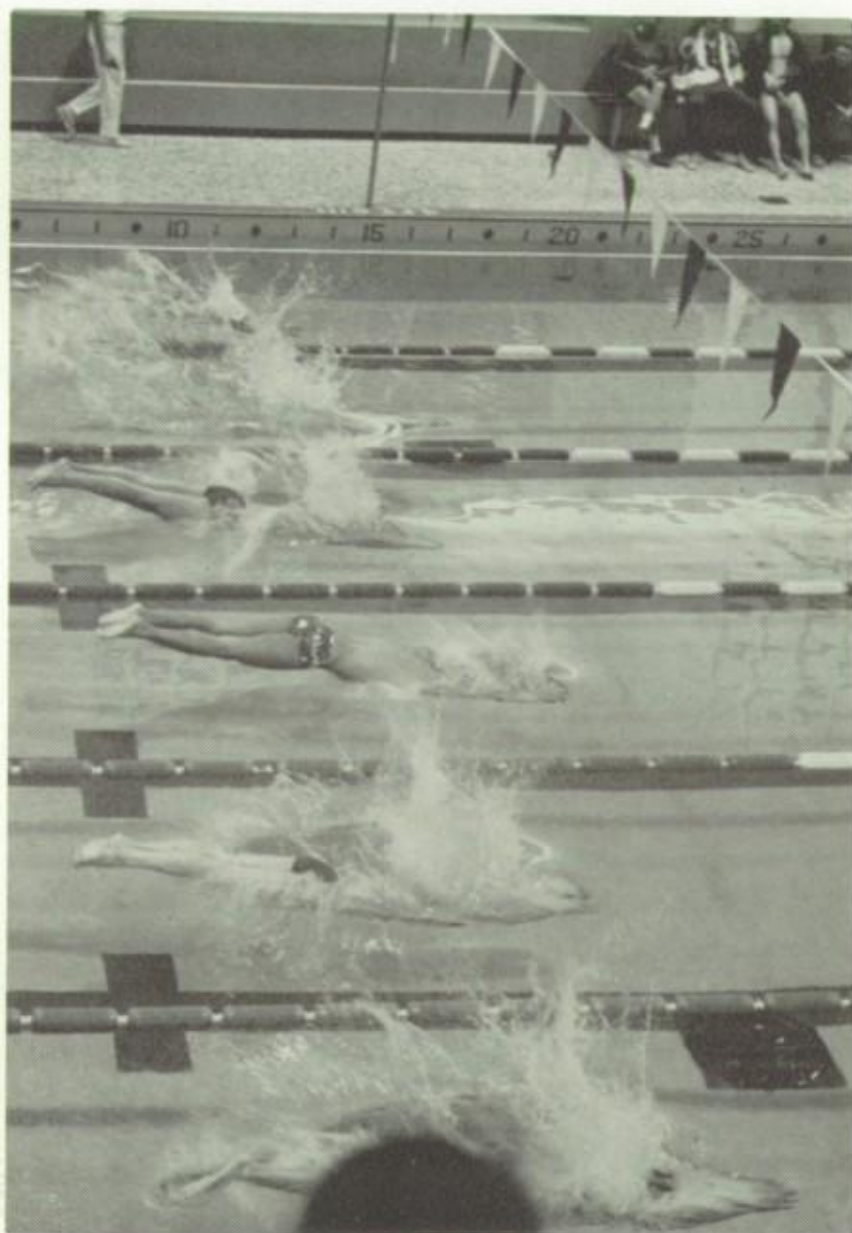

Marlon Moseley holds his opponent in a leg lift.

James Owens prepares to throw his competitor.

Young Swimmers Encounter Stiff Opposition

Coach — Mr. James A. Carpousis

"A rebuilding year" - that is the key term to describe this year's swimming team. With the loss of six senior swimming leaders from last year's squad, inexperience plagued this year's team with a one and nine record. Reading's lone win came by forfeit because of Hempfield's failure to supply officials.

One of the bright spots on the team this year was the 400 yard freestyle relay team of Daniel Priga, David Tipsword, Peter Long, and Gary Baker. Combining their efforts, they captured three first places and a number of seconds. Individually, three swimmers excelled in their respective events: Priga in the 100 yard, 200 yard, and 500 yard freestyle; Gregory Delong in diving and in the 100 yard backstroke; and Tipsword in the 100 yard butterfly and in the 200 yard individual medley.

With only three seniors departing from this year's team, the Red Knights look forward to a better season next year. Coach James Carpousis's squad will have the varsity experience which it lacked in 1974-1975 which could lead to a successful season in the ensuing year.

Netmen Seek League Crown

Coach — Mr. Leon H. Shultz

For the seventh consecutive year, Mr. Leon H. Shultz was at the helm of Reading High School's tennis team.

Three returning starters, namely Mark Kramer, Steven Scharfstein, and Thomas Fromuth led the charge for the 1975 team. With the addition of Thomas Saylor and Lee Ullman for the fourth and fifth positions, the chances for another successful season looked more promising than ever.

Slated to represent Reading High School in the Berks County Tournament in the singles at Wilson High School were Mark Kramer and Thomas Fromuth, and at the doubles at the Governor Mifflin High School were Steve Scharfstein and Lee Ullman in one combination, and Graham Shepard and Thomas Saylor in another.

Scheduled to participate in singles competition in the District #3 Tournament at Hempfield High School and Manheim Township High School in Lancaster County were Mark Kramer and Thomas Fromuth. Both Reading High School netmen were named to take part in District #3 doubles competition at the Hempfield High School

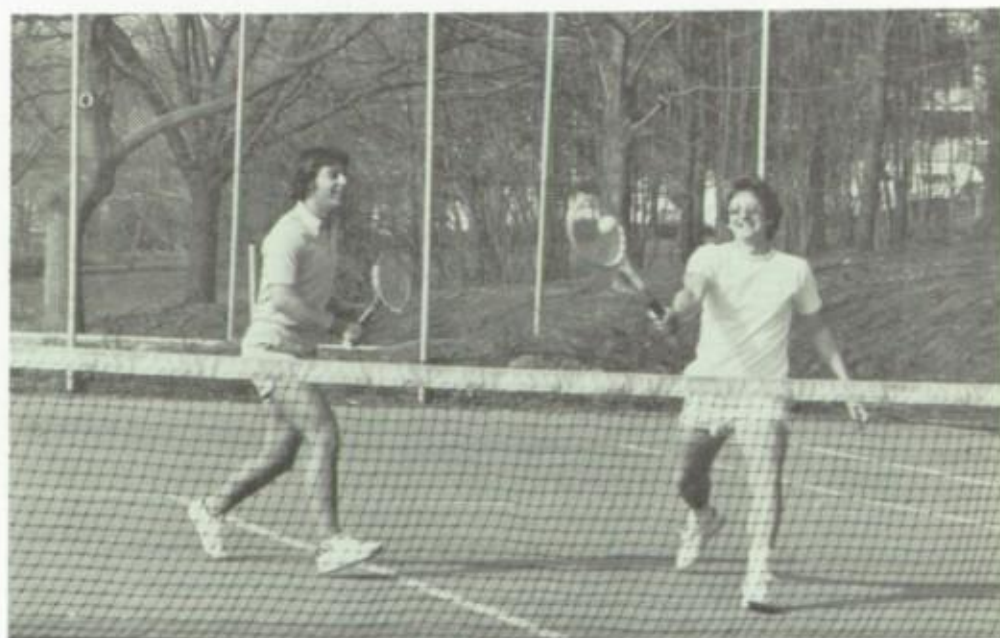

In the Berks League Championships Thomas Fromuth was the standout for Reading High School by qualifying for the semi-finals.

Golfers Launch New Fall Season

Coach — Mr. Carl E. Boltz

For the first time in the history of Reading High, golf was played in the fall. This change was made necessary as a result of an official ruling by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

By earning a record of five wins and six losses, the golfers showed a great improvement over last year's log of one and twelve. This year's team had the veteran support of Cary

Whiteley, Rodger Krause, Richard Schonewolf, and Kevin Eberhart.

Being one of the twenty-three low-scoring golfers in Berks County, Richard Schonewolf qualified for District 3 competition on the Blackwood Golf Course at the Hershey Country Club. No one was eligible to participate in the State Finals at Pennsylvania State University.

While Richard Schonewolf loads his clubs on the cart, Rodger Krause prepares to drive to the first tee.

Athletes Participate in First Superstars Competition

Over thirty athletes turned out for the 1975 Superstars competition at Reading High School. Overall point champions were determined through a point system which gave ten points to an event winner, seven points for a second place, five for a third place, three for a fourth place and one for a fifth place.

Alexandros Kovras won the boys' overall competition by taking the obstacle course and collecting three second places. Although only a sophomore, Alex accumulated 32 points.

Easily taking the girls' crown was Carla Thompson, a senior. She rolled up 50 points, thirteen points ahead of her nearest competition.

Alexandros Kovras, winner of the boys' competition, receives congratulations from Superstars promoter Daniel Oudinot.

Girls' Superstar champion was Carla Thompson.

Hockeyettes Build Confidence

Coach — Miss Patricia Enzman

Reading High's field hockey team improved this year. Under the new head coach Patricia Enzman, the team upped its 0-11 record of 1973 to 5-7-1. That's improvement!

Coach Enzman's girls journeyed through an up-and-down season. Reading's varsity eleven lost its first three games, retaliated by winning the next three, dropped three of the next four, then closed the season with a win, a loss, and a tie, in that order.

Carol Trayer, the Red Knight's goalie, recorded four shutouts during the thirteen game season. Susan Danowski and Vicky Eckert led Reading's scoring drive with five goals each.

Boys Volley with GAA Girls

Sponsor - Mrs. Cynthia A. Chmelewski

Volleyball, one of the numerous activities of the Girls' Athletic Association, provided exercise and entertainment for students after school in the new complex gymnasium. This intramural sport lasted three weeks.

What a year! A great change took place in the volleyball program to include interested boys in the fun and games, which could just be one of the many reasons the turnout was so great this past spring! These boys joined the girls to create challenging teams for competition with other participants in the program.

Soccer's Back

Sponsor - Mrs. Rita P. Burkey

Replacing speedball on the girls' intramural sports schedule this year was soccer.

Although the turnout of twenty girls was lower than anticipated, everyone enjoyed the lively action and thrills of the game.

Matches were played every day after school for two consecutive weeks in the fall. Contests took place on the upper athletic field behind the old gym.

Senior Michalena Lemanek topped all other teammates with a total 8426 total pin count.

Despite losing the county championship by eight pins, the Girls' Bowling Team had another tremendous season. Reading, Section I leader, still proved to be the strongest team in the Girls' Berks County Bowling League by posting a 44-7 final record. Hamburg, Section II leader, deprived the Red Knights of their third straight league championship berth by beating our girls in the playoffs at the end of the season. To finish up the year, Reading rolled in the County Tournament, March 3 and 4, 1975, and captured top honors.

Holding the high averages for the Knights were seniors Michalena Lemanek, 175, and Janet Wawrzonek, 168, which earned them positions on the Berks County Bowling All-Star Team.

Triple enrollment over last year's registration of eleven girls made badminton a "hot" sport on the Girls' Athletic Association's agenda.

Participants in this growing sport had loads of fun taking part in the exciting tournaments held three days a week in the Reading High School gymnasium during the month of October.

As in the other intramural sports, badminton was included on the list of activities for which the girls could earn G.A.A. points for athletic awards.

Coach — Miss Patricia Enzman

Another enjoyable event sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association was a table tennis program consisting of a series of sixteen games.

Twelve girls participated in the thrilling matches which took place in the Dr. Ralph C. Geigle Complex.

Senior Sandra Snyder and sophomore JoAnn Anton succeeded in winning championship honors in grades twelve and ten, respectively.

During competition the girls played hard in hope of advancing their tournament standings.

As interest in girls' athletics increases at the Castle, so does the number of victories. This is the first time in the history of Reading High School for a girls' varsity swimming team. This group consisted of twenty girls who practiced faithfully every day after school during the winter season to bring victories home to RHS. Considering this was their first season, the girls did extremely well, finishing with a 7-3-0 record.

Popular winners for the Knightettes were Joyce Bretz in the 200-meter freestyle, Cathy Doerrman in the 100-meter backstroke, Kandy Frey in the 200-meter individual medley, Patrice Long in the 100-meter butterfly, and Mary Rizzardi in the 100-meter breast stroke.

* Divers were Terry Moore, Kathy Mull, and Victoria Wade.

In the past five years, the only other extra-curricular swimming program for the girls was synchronized swimming. This intramural sport was held at the Northwest Elementary School swimming pool.

Girls' Athletic Group Adds New Activity

Sponsor — Mrs. Rita P. Burkey

Girls aren't athletic? Not a chance, and the throughout the year, many girls participated in one or more of the association's seven different intramural sports.

Because of its popularity, another annual Mother-Daughter Play Day was sponsored by the girls. For the first time, this event was held in the new gym. As in the past, contests, games, and refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

As a new activity, the G.A.A. sponsored a field trip to the Spectrum on November 10, 1974, to view Olga Korbut and the Russian Olympic gymnastic team.

Happy faces reveal the genuine interest the girls had for the forthcoming gymnastic performance at the Spectrum.

Brightens Homecoming

Sponsor - Mr. Ronald J. Spickler

For the fourth consecutive year, Key Club sponsored the popular Homecoming Queen contest. Senior girls representing fifteen different clubs and organizations vied for the coveted crown.

Basically, the queen was selected by popular vote. Five girls were chosen as semi-finalists as a result of the initial ballot. Tension mounted as the day grew nearer for the second vote to determine the winner and the first runner-up.

Finally, on October 18, 1974, during half time of the Homecoming football game, the suspense ended when it was announced that Lori Strunk was "Castle" queen and Cynthia Tobias, first runner-up.

Lori Strunk cheerfully accepts the crown from last year's queen, Joanne Chelius.

Christmas Program Highlighted by Choral and Instrumental Groups

Reading High School's Concert Orchestra and A Cappella Choir featured popular Yuletide music for the school's Christmas assembly which was held on December 19, 1974.

Program Variety Inspires Student Body In School Assemblies

Versatile instrumentalists of the Northeast Navy Band from Newport, Rhode Island, presented a delightful assembly program on November 10, 1974, in the high school auditorium.

On October 23, 1974, Mr. Bernard Kaplan, Intermediate Unit Fourteen advisor to the Governor's Youth Traffic Safety Council and local school advisor, presented a stimulating safety program to the senior class.

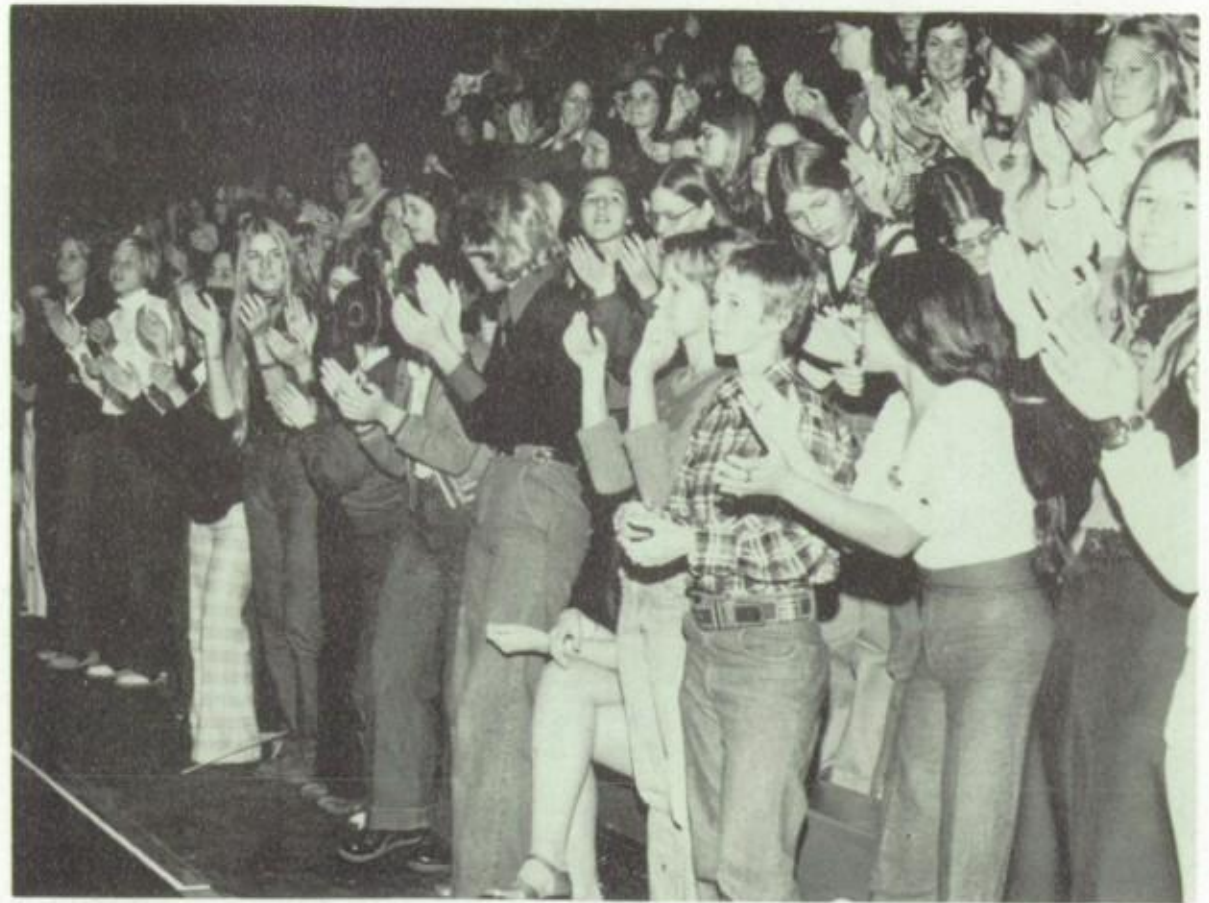

One of the unique assembly programs was the demonstration given by students of the Dillman Karate Institute on December 5, 1974, in the gymnasium of the Dr. Ralph C. Geigle Educational Complex.

Pep...You Bet!

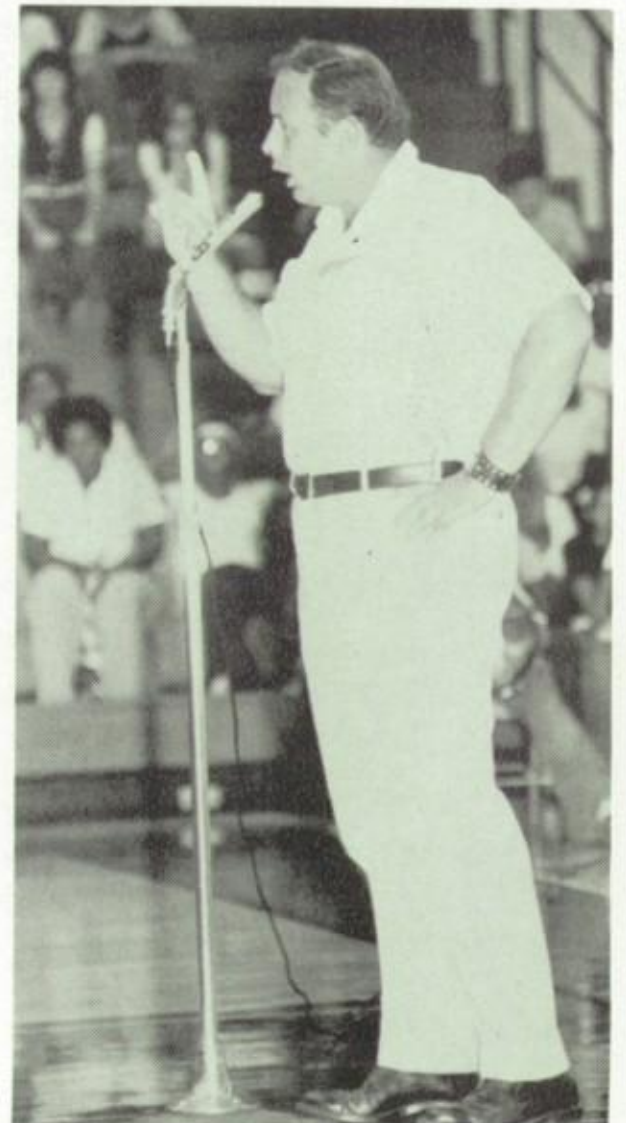

At the first pep assembly, announcer Tracy Hoffmann introduced Dr. Richard P. Flannery, the new principal, who in turn started off the rally with a lively pep talk.

Backing up the school athletes in all sports activities was the enthusiastic support of the Castle students.

Throughout the year, all of the boys' as well as the girls' athletic groups were cheered on to victory at the pep assemblies.

Featured at another pep assembly was Mr. John Schonewolf, football coach, who sparked student interest with a stirring message.

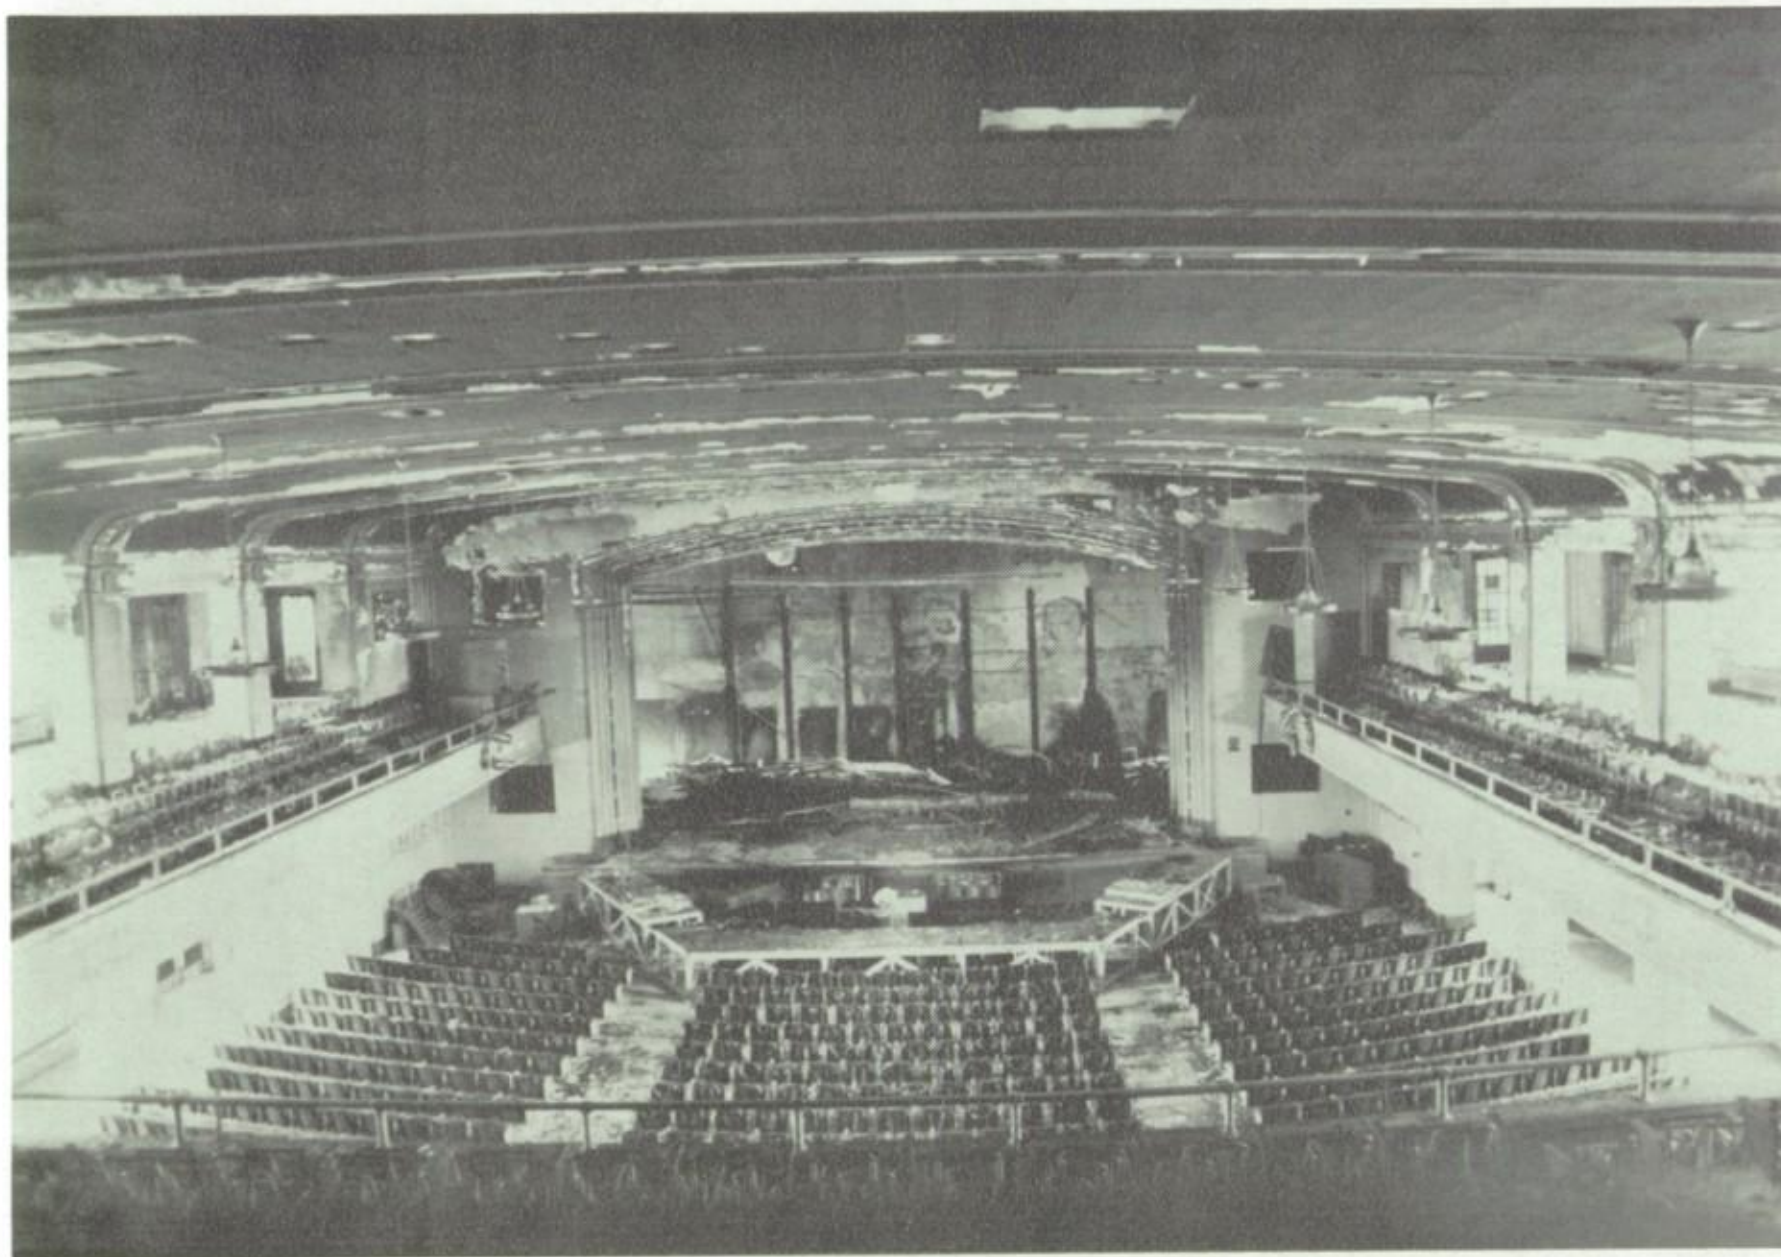

Heart of School Crippled In Blaze

Incredible! Unbelievable!...best described the reactions of those who witnessed the devastating fire which occurred on the night of February 11, 1975 in the Reading High School auditorium.

Sealed forever are the enjoyable moments of the previous era—only to be remembered and cherished by students of yesteryear.

Charred remains of the past will give birth to the new. With an eye open to the future, a new auditorium with modern facilities will become a reality. In the meantime, anticipation of the assembly hall's new appearance will mark the thoughts of everyone.

With the opening of the new facility, the auditorium will again become the vibrant heart of activity in the school.
